Why does the other participant want what they want? What are their objectives? Understanding these interests allows you to develop answers that tackle their motivations while also satisfying your own.
- 4. Leveraging Power Ethically: Diamond doesn't advocate manipulative tactics. Instead, he centers on employing your strengths ethically and strategically to obtain a beneficial result. This might entail identifying your best choices to a negotiated settlement (BATNA), creating coalitions, or adeptly communicating your desires.

Implementing the Diamond Method:

Implementing these fundamentals requires practice and self-reflection. Start by meticulously preparing for each negotiation, identifying your targets, your BATNA, and the potential motivations of the counter participant.
