Exploring Key Themes: Dharma, Karma, and the Human Condition

Both epics delve deeply into the core concepts of Hindu dharma, or righteous conduct, and karma, the principle of cause and effect. The Mahabharata, on the other hand, presents a more complex picture. The epic's intricate plot, featuring the Kurukshetra war, explores the grey areas of morality, examining the consequences of choices made under pressure. The Bhagavad Gita, a pivotal section within the Mahabharata, included in many versions of No. 403, delves into the nature of duty, self-knowledge, and the path to liberation (moksha).
